

CORRECTIONS TO ERRORS IN SENATE BYLAWS

The ERG committee was given an incorrect version of the bylaws last year when they started their revisions. The flawed version contained changes in two areas that were not approved by the Senate. Neither the SEC nor the Senate were aware of these changes so were not aware that they were approving substantive changes that altered the membership of the CORE committee and deleted a charge from the Staff Affairs committee. The SEC has voted unanimously to reinstate the correct version of the bylaws in the following areas. This will need to be approved by a 2/3 vote of the full Senate at the September 15, 2008 meeting.

1. Current Incorrect text in the Bylaws p. 12-13:

6.4 Core Liberal Arts and Sciences Program (CORE) Committee:

6.4.a Membership: The committee shall consist of:

(1) An appointed presiding officer; (2) One (1) faculty representative from each of the following colleges: Arts and Humanities; Behavioral and Social Sciences; Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences; and Chemical and Life Sciences; (3) One (1) faculty representative rotated from one of the following: Education; Architecture, Planning, and Preservation; the Robert H. Smith School of Business and Management; and Public Health; (4) One (1) faculty representative rotated from among the following colleges: Agriculture and Natural Resources; the Philip Merrill College of Journalism; and the A. James Clark School of Engineering; (5) And two (2) students. (6) The Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Dean of Undergraduate Studies and the Director of the University Honors Program (or their designees) and the Director of CORE Planning and Implementation shall serve as ex officio members of the committee.

Text should be reverted to:

2. Deleted text from charge to Staff Affairs Committee
