ISSUE

---

The School of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (SLLC), within the College of Arts and Humanities, proposes to rename its Master of Arts in “German Language and Literature” to “German Studies.” German Studies more accurately reflects the range of topics studied in the program, which includes cultural elements other than language and literature. The new name also aligns with how German graduate programs are titled at peer institutions.

This proposal is also being submitted with proposals to rename the minor, bachelor’s and Ph.D. programs so that all of the program names will be titled German Studies. No other changes to the program are proposed at this time.

This proposal was approved by the Senate Programs, Curricula, and Courses committee on November 6, 2020.

RECOMMENDATION(S)

---

The Senate Committee on Programs, Curricula, and Courses recommends that the Senate approve this name change.

COMMITTEE WORK

The committee considered this proposal at its meeting on November 6, 2020. Julie Koser, from the School of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures, and Ralph Bauer, from the College of Arts and Humanities, presented the proposal and answered questions from the committee. The proposal was approved by the committee.

ALTERNATIVES

The Senate could decline to approve this program name change.

RISKS

If the Senate declines to approve this new name, the university will lose an opportunity to reflect more accurately the content of the program.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

---

There are no significant financial implications with changing the name of the academic program. No other aspects of the program are changing.

Proposal Summary

We are proposing a name change for the BA major (and minor), MA, and PhD programs in order to bring them in line with peer institutions and the current state of the field. Additionally, this change will more accurately reflect the expertise of existing faculty and the content of curriculum offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The existing name "Germanic" accommodated the expertise of faculty members who researched and taught on the literatures and cultures of Scandinavia. These faculty members have since retired and the program has no plans to hire in these fields in the future. For these reasons, the program requests approval to rename the programs "German Studies."

Program and Catalog Information

Catalog Program Requirements:

Thesis option: 30 credits

Non-thesis option: 30 credits

The M.A. degree program offers both a thesis and non-thesis option. For the thesis option, the student must complete 24 hours of coursework, the thesis with oral defense and a written comprehensive examination. The non-thesis option requires 30 hours of coursework, a mini-thesis with oral defense and a written comprehensive examination. For both options the comprehensives consist of two three-hour examinations based on the coursework and the M.A. reading list.

Impact on current students. It should be specifically acknowledged that students enrolled in the program prior to the effective date of any curriculum change may complete their program under the old requirements if they wish. The courses required must remain available, or suitable substitutions specifically designated.

There is no significant impact on current students in completion of their program with the requested name change of the program.
